THE PALM.

A COLLECTION OF

SACRED MUSIC,

FOR

CHOIRS, SINGING SCHOOLS AND CONVENTIONS.

BY

C. M. WYMAN.

CHICAGO:
PUBLISHED BY ROOT & CADY, 67 WASHINGTON STREET.

PREFACE.

THERE are a few features in this work that we hope will prove acceptable. These are:—

I. The Elementary Course is as concisely stated as possible, leaving every teacher entirely free to use his own method of communicating a knowledge of the fundamental principles.

II. The collection of Singing School Music has been carefully graded, so as to furnish very easy part-songs, which a class may readily reach within the first two or three lessons. This it is believed will add very much to the interest of the earlier sessions of schools. More elaborate Glees and Choruses have also been provided for the use of advanced classes and musical conventions.

III. In the department of METRICAL PSALMODY, we have selected from a large amount of material those tunes that seemed most likely to prove real additions to those already in use.

IV. In the "SOCIAL AND SUNDAY SCHOOL DEPARTMENT," will be found a selection of pieces, especially adapted to these gatherings.

V. Of ANTHEMS and Set pieces, we present an unusually large and varied collection. The very general demand for short Anthems, suitable for opening or closing worship, has led us to furnish a large number of such pieces, drawn from many sources, to which attention is invited. Of longer pieces suitable for Dedication, Ordination, Thanksgiving, &c., there is, we trust, a sufficient variety. We have also added several CHORUSES from the OLD MASTERS for the use of MUSICAL CONVENTIONS and CONCERTS.

VI. METRICAL CHANTS. The words of these are almost entirely new, in this form, and the music in this, as in the other departments, has been written expressly for THE PALM.

VII. CONGREGATIONAL TUNES.—The most familiar standard tunes for Congregational use will be found in this department.

We hereby return our thanks to all those who have rendered valuable aid in the preparation of this work.

C. M. WYMAN.

Entered, according to Act of Congress, A. D. 1870, by ROOT & CADY, in the District Court of the United States for the Northern District of Illinois.

ELEMENTS OF MUSIC.

(THEORETICAL AND PRACTICAL.)

CHAPTER I.

§ 1. A musical sound is called a tone.

§ 2. A tone has three properties which are essential to its existence. viz:

1st. LENGTH,
2nd. PITCH,
3rd. POWER.

§ 3. Therefore the theory of music may be divided into the three following departments:

1st. That which treats of Length—Rhythmics.
2nd. That which treats of Pitch—Melodics.
3rd. That which treats of Power—Dynamics.

NOTE.—No attempt is here made to furnish an elaborate treatise on the Theory of Notation, but simply to set forth the few prominent things which are essential to the success of the Singing School In some instances the facts are only stated, leaving each teacher to work them out according to his own method. It is hoped that this condensed arrangement will assist teachers in making their explanations of the Theory, few and short, leaving most of the time for practice. Let the teachers' motto be—PRACTICE MUCH. TALK LITTLE.

CHAPTER II.

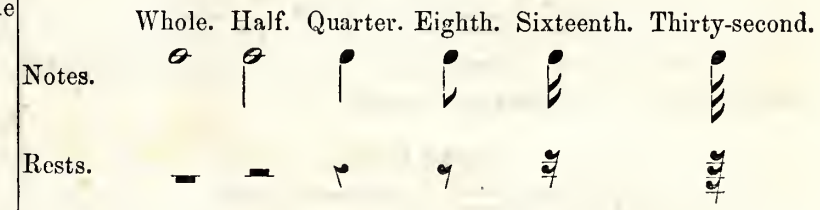
Rhythmics.

NOTES AND RESTS.

§ 4. The length of tones is represented by characters called Notes.

§ 5. Characters indicating silence are called Rests.

EXAMPLES.



§ 6. A whole note is equal to two halves. A half to two quarters. A quarter to two eighths, &c.

§ 7. A character equal to two whole notes, and written thus: ||𝅝|| is called a double note.

§ 8. Notes and Rests have no positive, only a relative length

CHAPTER III.

Melodics.

THE SCALE.

§ 9. The scale consists of eight tones, which are named from the lowest to the highest, thus:

	One.	Two.	Three.	Four.	Five.	Six.	Seven.	Eight.
The syllables	Do,	Re,	Mi,	Fa,	Sol,	La,	Si,	Do,
Pronounced	Doe,	Ray,	Mee,	Fah,	Sole,	Lah,	See,	Doe,

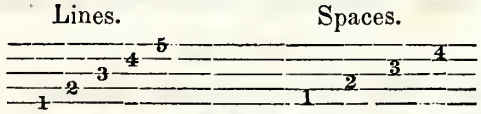
are used to assist the beginner in producing the right tones.

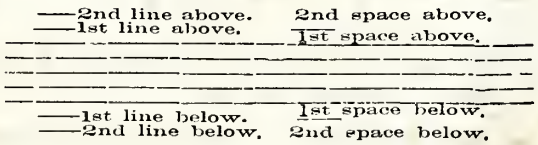
§ 10. The pitch of tones is represented by the Staff, which consists of five lines, and the spaces belonging to them. Each line and each space is called a degree. They are numbered from the lowest upward.

STAFF.



§ 11. When more degrees are needed, short lines are added above or below, thus enlarging the staff.

ADDED LINES.



§ 12. The absolute pitch of tones is named by the first seven letters of the alphabet.

§ 13. The pitches represented by the different degrees of the staff are determined by characters called clefs, of which there are three in general use, viz:

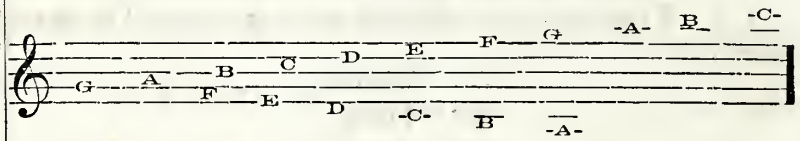
The G clef thus:

The F clef thus:

And the C clef thus:

§ 14. The Treble or G clef represents the letter G upon the second line, while the other letters follow upward in alphabetical order, and downward by reversing the order, thus:

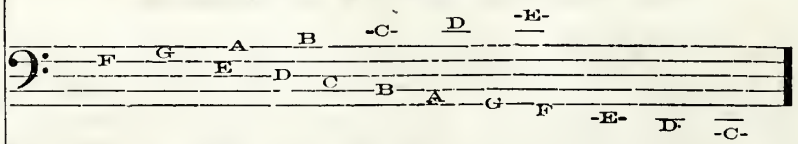
G CLEF.



§ 15. The Tenor, or C clef also represents the letter G upon the second line, and the letters, syllables and numerals are applied the same as in the Treble clef.

§ 16. The Base, or F clef, represents the letter F upon the fourth line, thus:

F CLEF.



§ 17. The scale, with syllables, numerals and letters, is represented upon the staff with the clefs as follows:

No. 1. G clef. THE SCALE.

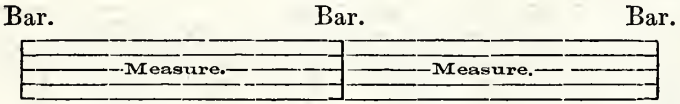
CHAPTER IV.

Rhythmics.

§ 18. Music forms itself into groups of pulsations or beats, called measures.

§ 19. Measures are represented to the eye by spaces between perpendicular lines; the dividing lines are called Bars.

EXAMPLE.



§ 20. There are four kinds of measure, viz: Double, triple, quadruple and sextuple.

§ 21. Double measure consists of two beats, (pulsations) accented on the first. It may be indicated by two motions or beats of the hand, viz., down and up, called beating time.

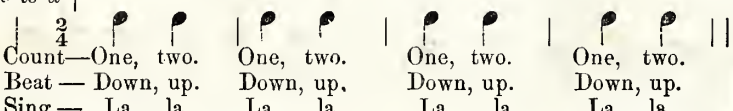
§ 22. Any note may be taken to represent the time of one beat, and is then called the beat note.

§ 23. Figures are placed upon the staff, one above the other, just after the clef. The upper figure shows the number of beats in a measure. The lower figure shows the beat note, or the note which occupies the time of one beat.

EXAMPLES.

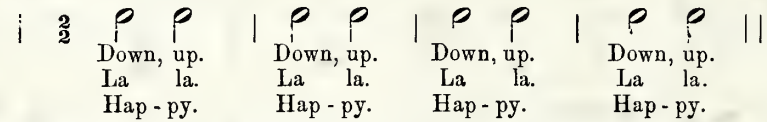
No. 1.

Double measure. Two beats. Accented on the first. The beat note is a 𝅗𝅥



No. 2.

What kind of measure? How many beats? Which accented? What is the beat note?

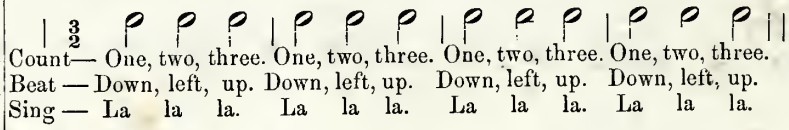


(NOTE.—The above exercises are performed alike, and differ only in their representation—a quarter note in the first example being equal to a half note in the second.)

§ 24. Triple measure has three beats, accented on the first. It is indicated by the upper figure 3, and requires three beats, viz: Down, left, up.

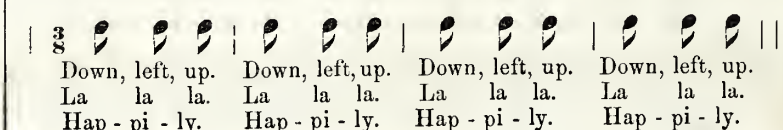
No. 3.

Triple measure. Three beats. Accented on the first. The beat note is 𝅗𝅥



No. 4.

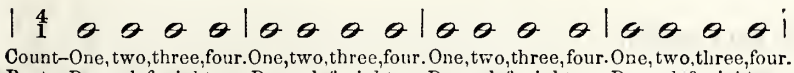
What kind of measure? How many beats? Which accented? What is the beat note?



§ 25. Quadruple measure has four beats, accented principally on the first, and lightly on the third. It is indicated by the upper figure 4, and requires four beats, viz. Down, left, right, up.

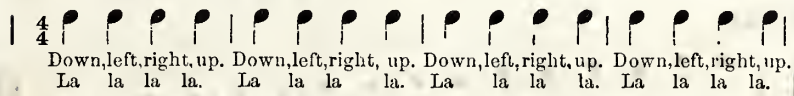
No. 5.

Quadruple measure. Four beats. Accented on the first and third. The beat note is 𝅝



No. 6.

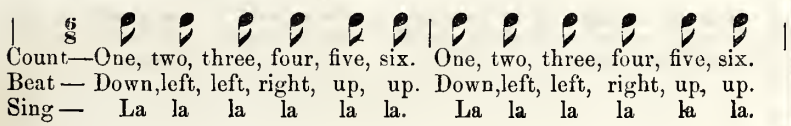
What kind of measure? How many beats? Which accented? What is the beat note?



§ 26. Sextuple measure has six beats, accented principally on the first, and lightly on the fourth. It is indicated by the upper figure 6, and requires six beats, viz: Down, left, left, right, up, up.

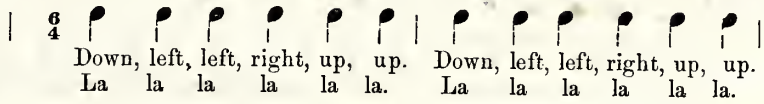
No. 7.

Sextuple measure. Six beats. Accented on the first and fourth. The beat note is 𝅗𝅥



No. 8.

What kind of measure? How many beats? Which accented? What is the beat note?



§ 27. The following are in use for the upper figure: 2, 3, 4, 6, 9, 12, and the following for the lower figure: 1, 2, 4, 8, 16, 32.

TO THE TEACHER.

It would be impossible to follow any set programme in teaching Singing Schools, but it is hoped that the following will aid the teacher in furnishing that variety which will make his schools entertaining as well as thoroughly educational:

SINGING SCHOOL PROGRAMME.

1. Familiar Tune.
2. Vocal Drill.
3. Blackboard Exercise.
4. Exercise in Reading Music.
5. Hymn Tunes.
6. Glees.
7. Quartet.

Rest Ten Minutes.

8. Hymn Tune.
9. Vocal Drill.
10. Anthem.
11. Chants.
12. Glees.
13. Anthems.
14. Quartet.

PRACTICAL EXERCISES.*

No. 1. What clef? What kind of measure? How many beats? What is the beat note?†

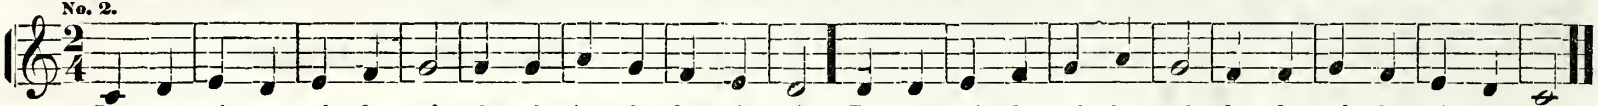
Do, do, re, re, mi, mi, fa, fa, sol, sol, la, la, si, si, do, do. Do, do, si, si, la, la, sol, sol, fa, fa, mi, mi, re, re, do, do.
1, 1, 2, 2, 3, 3, 4, 4, 5, 5, 6, 6, 7, 7, 8, 8. 8, 8, 7, 7, 6, 6, 5, 5, 4, 4, 3, 3, 2, 2, 1, 1.
Come, let's join our cheerful voices, While the upward scale we're singing; How the strain each heart rejoices, Pleasures pure and sweet 'tis bringing.

§ 28. A note may require more than one beat.

QUARTER AND HALF NOTES.

No. 2.

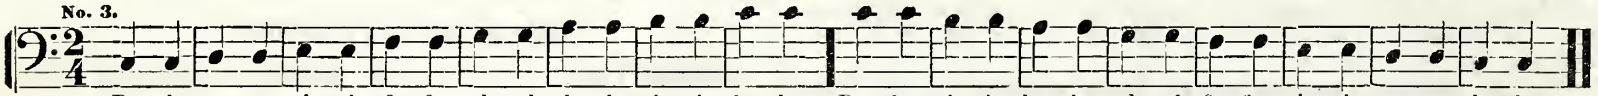


Do, re, mi, re, mi, fa, sol, sol, sol, la, sol, fa, mi, re. Re, re, mi, fa, sol, la, sol, fa, fa, sol, fa, mi, re, do.
Rainbow, rainbow; bright and fair; Smiling sweet on all be - low. Peace di - vine thy rays de - clare, Heavenly love thy splendors show.

NOTE.—Let the syllables, numerals, letters and words be applied to every exercise.

BASE CLEF.

No. 3.



Do, do, re, re, mi, mi, fa, fa, sol, sol, la, la, si, si, do, do. Do, do, si, si, la, la, sol, sol, fa, fa, mi, mi, re, re, do, do.
Voices ringing, all are singing, Flowers springing, beauty bringing, Hearts are bounding, music sounding, Countless treasures, countless pleasures.

No. 4.

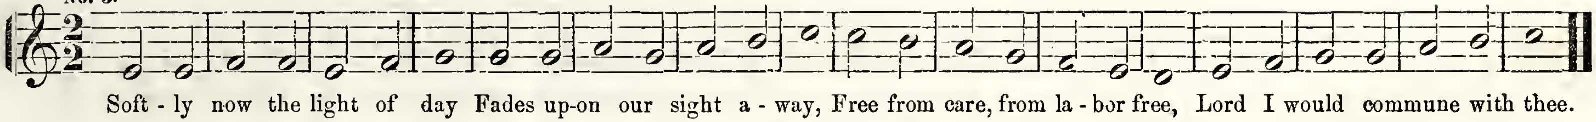
Do, re, mi, fa, mi, re, do, do, re, mi, fa, sol, fa. mi, re, re. Mi, fa, sol, la, sol, fa, mi, mi, fa, sol, fa, mi, re, re, do, d.
Now the gentle May approaching, Shining fleecy clouds are fly-ing, Cheerly sound our notes of welcome, While with nature's songsters vicin

* NOTE.—Much care has been given to the Grading of all the practical exercises. It is not intended that all the single exercises should be learned before singing in four parts, but after learning one or two pages, let the school go directly to "Morning Song," on page 19, and to easy hymn tunes. Thus, by alternating between single and four part pieces, may the variety and interest, so essential to the success of a school, be kept up.

† The pupil should answer these questions before singing every new exercise.

HALF AND WHOLE NOTES.

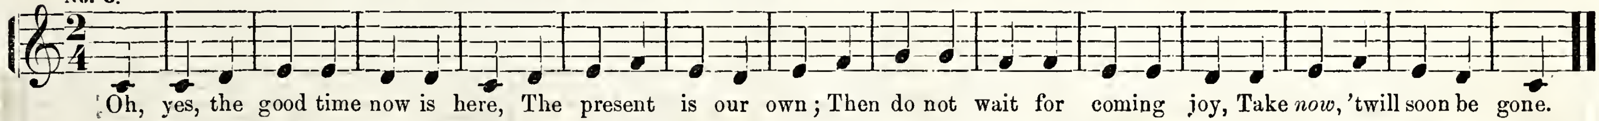
No. 5.



§ 29. A piece of music may commence on either beat of the measure.

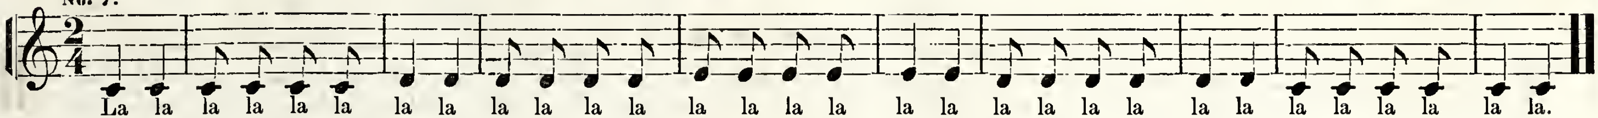
BEGINNING ON THE SECOND BEAT OF THE MEASURE.

No. 6.



§ 30. Two or more notes may be performed at one beat.

No. 7.



§ 31. Dots thus (⁝) indicate a repetition of the music.

ROUND.* (Skips.)

No. 8.

ROUND. (An old melody.)

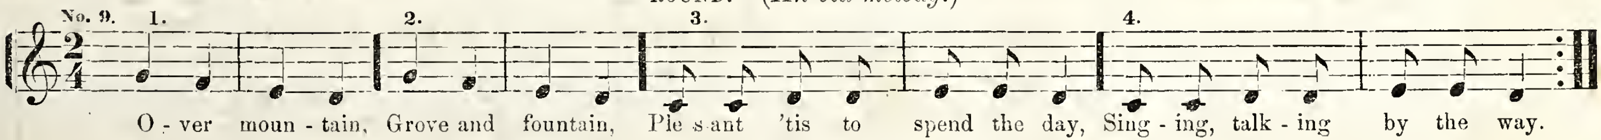
No. 9.



NOTE.—After singing this page the class may sing "Morning Song, and "Distant Bells," page 19.

* This should be sung in four parts, as indicated by the figures 1, 2, 3, 4. Each voice should commence at No. 1. When the first voice arrives at No. 2, let the second voice begin, and so through with all the parts.

TWO PART SONG.

No. 10. Ladies.

Join and sing this two part song, Loud let all our voices ring, Beat the time with ac-cent strong, So our cheerful song we sing.

Gentlemen.

RESTS.

No. 11.

Follow, follow, follow, follow, Never, never, never, never.

Never, never, never, never, Follow, follow, follow, follow.

§ 32. The whole rest is used to fill any kind of measure, and is then called the measure rest.

§ 33. A tie (⁀) is used when two or more notes on the same degree are to be sung to one syllable.

MEASURE REST AND THE TIE.

No. 12.

Melodics.

MAJOR SCALE.

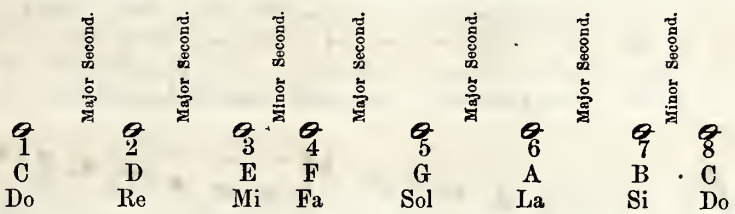
§ 44. The scale heretofore used, consisting of eight tones, is called the major scale.

§ 45. The difference of pitch between any two tones is called an Interval—as from 1 to 2, 1 to 5, 3 to 6, &c.

§ 46. The interval between two consecutive tones of the scale, is called a second—as from 1 to 2, 3 to 4, &c.

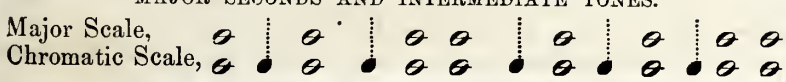
§ 47. The major scale has seven seconds, of which two are small, and are called minor seconds. Five are great, and are called major seconds. For purposes of measurement these two intervals are often called steps and half steps. The minor seconds occur between 3 and 4 and 7 and 8. All the others are major seconds.

MAJOR SCALE—SECONDS ILLUSTRATED.



§ 48. Wherever the whole step occurs in the scale, an intermediate pitch may be introduced, thus forming another scale. It consists of thirteen tones and twelve intervals of a half step each, and is called the chromatic scale.

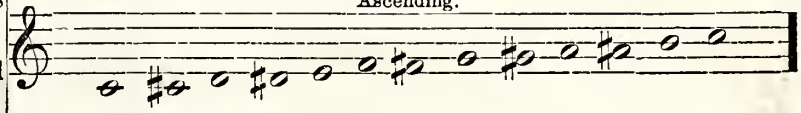
MAJOR SECONDS AND INTERMEDIATE TONES.



§ 49. The intermediate tones are indicated by means of characters called sharps (♯), or flats (♭), as follows:

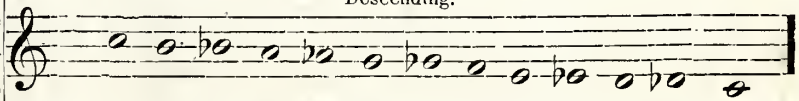
CHROMATIC SCALE, SYLLABLES, NUMERALS AND LETTERS.

Ascending.



Do,	di,	re,	ri,	mi,	fa,	fi,	sol,	si,	la,	li	si	do.
1	♯1	2	♯2	3	4	♯4	5	♯5	6	♯6	7	8.
C	C♯	D	D♯	E	F	F♯	G	G♯	A	A♯	B	C.

Descending.



Do,	si,	se,	la,	le,	sol,	se,	fa,	mi,	me,	re,	re,	do.
8	7	♭7	6	♭6	5	♭5	4	3	♭3	2	♭2	1.
C	B	B♭	A	A♭	G	G♭	F	E	E♭	D	D♭	C.

NOTE.—In the above syllables the letter i should receive the sound of long e—thus Di is pronounced Dē, Ri is pronounced Rē, &c. The letter e should have the sound of long a—thus Se is pronounced Sā, Le is pronounced Lā, &c.

§ 50. The numerals are read—one, sharp one, two, sharp two, seven, flat seven, &c. The letters are read C, C sharp, D, D sharp, B, B flat, &c.

§ 51. The degree upon which a sharp is placed, indicates a tone a half step higher, and the degree upon which a flat is placed indicates a tone a half step lower than it otherwise would.

§ 52. A natural (♮) is used to counteract the influence of a sharp or flat.

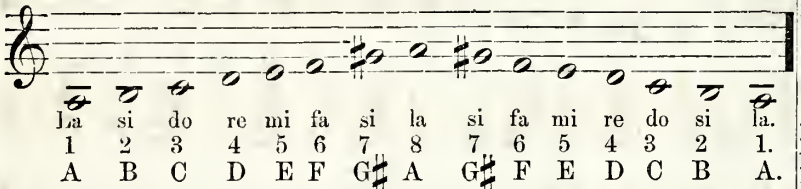
§ 53. The influence of a sharp or flat (accidental) extends through the measure in which it appears, unless counteracted by a natural. It also extends through succeeding measures, unless intercepted by a note upon another degree.

CHAPTER VIII.

MINOR SCALE.

§ 54. There is another scale, consisting of eight tones, but differing from the major scale in the kind and order of intervals. It is called the minor scale.

MINOR SCALE.



NOTE.—There are several forms of minor scales, but this, called the Harmonic Minor Scale, is the most used at the present day.

§ 55. The minor seconds occur between 2 and 3, 5 and 6, and 7 and 8—the interval between 6 and 7 is called an augmented second, (the augmented second is equal to a step and a half,) and all the others are major seconds.

CHAPTER IX.

TRANSPOSITION.

§ 56. Transposition consists in changing the pitch of a scale or tune. The key note is named by the letter which is taken as One of the Scale. Thus a scale commencing with C for One, is in the key of C. A scale commencing with D for One is in the key of D, &c

§ 57. The sharps or flats necessary in transposition are placed just after the clefs, and are called the signature (sign) of the key.

§ 58. When one sharp is used, the degree upon which it is placed is always the syllable Si, and the degree upon which the last (or right hand) sharp is placed, is in all cases the syllable Si, and the key note or do is found one above.

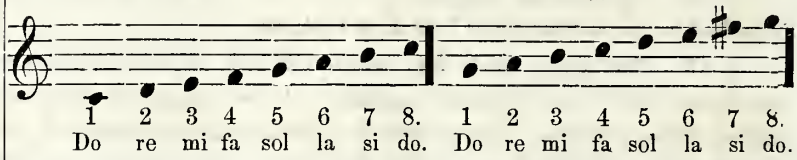
§ 59. When one flat is used, the degree upon which it is placed is always the syllable Fa, and the degree upon which the last (or right hand) flat is placed, is in all cases the syllable Fa, and the key note, or Do, is found four below.

NOTE.—With the above explanation, every pupil will at once be able to read in any key—and much practice in all the keys is recommended before farther investigating the process of transposition.

§ In transposing the scale, let it be borne in mind that the intervals must remain unchanged, i. e., from 2 to 4 and from 7 to 8 must be half steps, and all the others whole steps. It will be necessary to omit some of the tones in the given key, and to introduce in the new key certain intermediate tones.

§ 61. Transposition of the scale from the key of C, to the key of G.

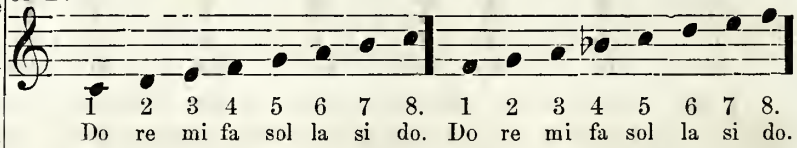
SCALE IN C. SCALE IN G.



In the above illustration it will be seen that the tone F is omitted, and the tone F sharp is introduced. The correctness of this will be seen, as the interval from E to F sharp is a whole step, and corresponds to the interval between 6 and 7, and from F sharp to G is a half step corresponding to the interval between 7 and 8.

§ 62. For similar reasons an additional sharp will be introduced in each succeeding transposition. (See pages 25, 26, &c.)

§ 63. Transposition of the scale from the key of C to the key of F.



In the above illustration it will be seen that the tone B is omitted, and the tone B flat is introduced. The correctness of this will be seen as the interval from A to B flat is a half step, and corresponds to the interval between 3 and 4, and from B flat to C, is a whole step, corresponding to the interval between 4 and 5.

§ 64. For similar reasons, an additional flat will be introduced in each succeeding transposition. (See pages 35, 36, &c.)

NOTE.—When the major and minor scales have the same signature, they are said to be related. Thus every major key has its relative minor, and every minor key has its relative major. The relative minor to any major scale is based upon its sixth, and the relative major to any minor scale is based upon its third.

INSTRUMENTAL INTERLUDE. The three parts may be whistled. For whistling, play accompaniment two octaves higher.

Allegretto.

1. Ring out, sweet bells, and hail the morn, While all is bright above us; An-oth-er God-giv'n year is born And fond ones live to love us.

2. Ring out, school bells, and spread the light Of learning's rich dominion, For, free to all, both black and white, Are knowledge and opin - ion.

3. Ring out, church bells, across the hills And o'er the rockbound mountain, Ring of the joy that each soul fills Who drinks from Jesus' fountain.

4. Ring out, gay bells, and fill the earth With joy-ous notes of gladness, Let all the vales resound with mirth And mankind banish sad - ness.

CHORUS.

Rit. Tempo.

Ring out, ring out, ring out, ring out, ring out, sweet bells! Ring out, ring out, sweet bells!

Ring out, ring out, ring out, ring out, ring out, school bells! Ring out, ring out, school bells!

THE VILLAGE BELLS.

C. M. Wyman.

1. 'Twas evening when I left the vale That nursed my boy - ish years, My fa-ther's man-ly cheek was pale—My moth-er's wet with tears.

2. The stars are in the blue sky set, And light is on the sea, And some that part-ed now are met, But who shall wel - come me?

Then borne up - on the breeze of night, I heard the dis-tant bells Come o'er those waters, cold and bright, With all their breathing spells.

Then borne up - on the breeze of night, I heard the dis - tant bells With all their breath - ing spells.
They light no home's un-wreath-ed bowers, Of whom my spir - it tells, I heard those vil - lage bells.

They light no home's unwreathed bowers, Of whom my spir - it tells, Nor come, as when in happier hours I heard those village bells.

EVENING BARCAROLLE.

F. W. Root.
Berlin, Oct., 1869.

Leggiero.

FINE.

D.C. 1. Bright the wavelets dance, entwining Wreaths of light about our boat, In which, beneath the sil - ver shin-ing, Free from care, we sing and float;

2. Still is lake and wood and riv-er, Hushed are all the sounds of day; Our songs, alone, the night air quiver, Then to si-lence fade a - way:

3. Shades are o'er the flood in-clin - ing, Slow a-cross our path they creep; And, with the silver-moon's, declining, Send the waves, becalmed, to sleep:

D. C.

Songs of love breathe low and softly, Streams of melody flow forth airily; Now the tones, inspired and lofty, Like victor shouts, from all arise

Lie! wave echoing hills repeating? No from far away friendly voices gay, Send across the waves a greeting; Let our glad song give back reply.

La, la, la, la, la, la, la, la, Streams of mel - o - dy flow forth air - i - ly: La, la, la, la, la, la, la, la,

Homeward now our course is tending, But our parting song rolls the hills among, To the sky above us bending, Up to the stars its clear notes raise.

THE ANGELS' CALL.

FOR FUNERAL OCCASIONS.

J. W. Ruggles.

Words from the Signet Ring, by permission.

1. Gath-er gent-ly round the bier, One we loved is sleep-ing here, Soft and reverent be our tread In the presence of our dead.
2. An-gels called the lit-tle one, Ere life's work had scarce begun, To the bless-ed heav'n-ly shore, There to sing for-ev-er more.
3. Well we know our lit-tle friend Walks where pleasures never end, And will meet us on that shore, When we walk the earth no more
4. We shall press no more his hand, We shall miss him in our band, Search in vain his wont-ed place For the radiance of his face.
5. Bless-ed Fa-ther, help us all To be wait-ing for thy call; Fear-ing not in thee to die, And as-cend to thee on high.

THE PALM.

PALM. L. M.

C. M. WYMAN.

Maestoso.

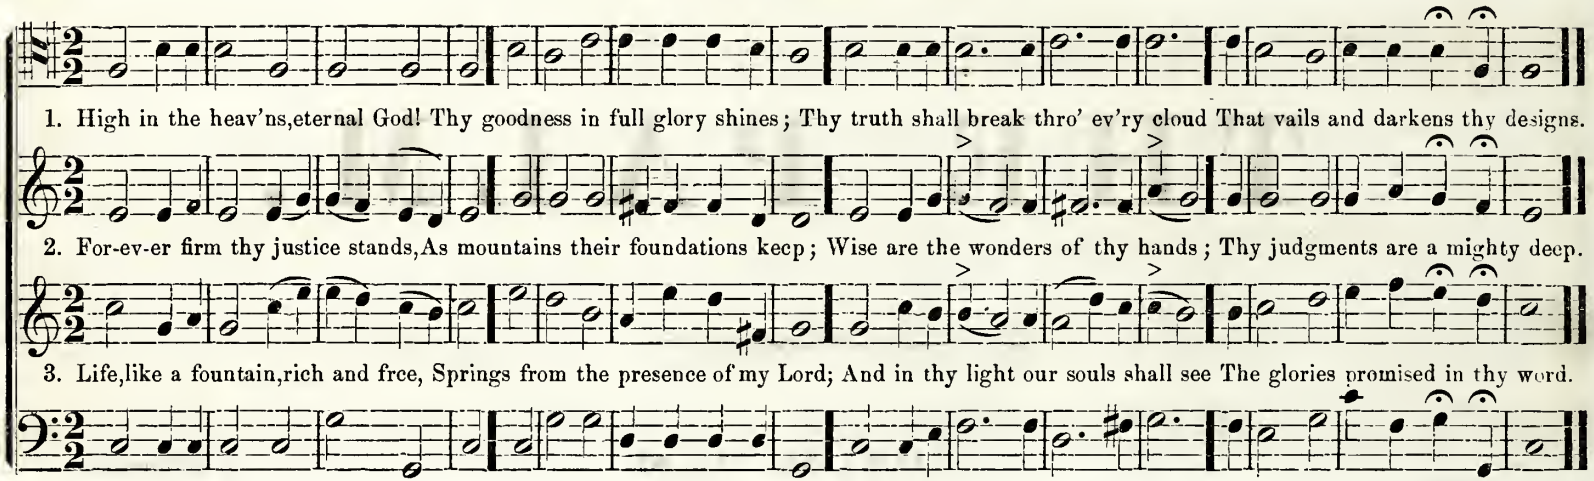
1. Praise, everlasting praise be paid To him who earth's foundations laid; Praise to the God whose strong decrees Sway the creation as he please.

2. O, for a strong, a lasting faith, To credit what th'Almighty saith! T' embrace the message of his Son, And call the joys of heaven our own.

3. Then, should the earth's foundations shake, And all the wheels of nature break, Our steady souls shall fear no more Than solid rocks when billows roar.

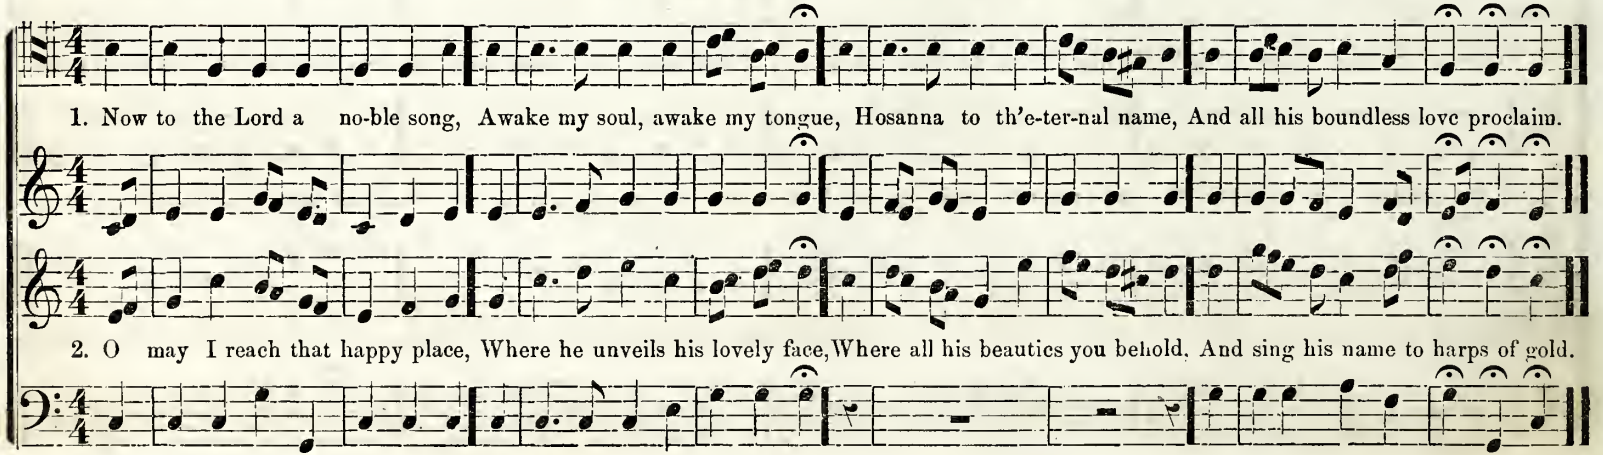
WOODFORD. L. M.

SIDNEY HOLMES.



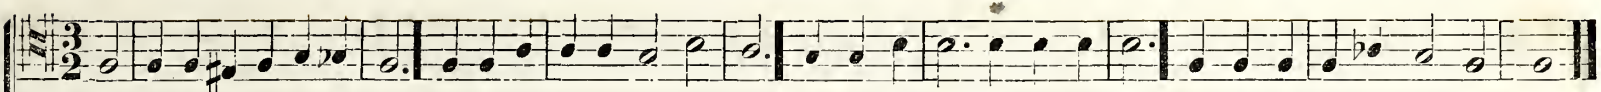
STANTON. L. M.

ANANIAH DODGE.

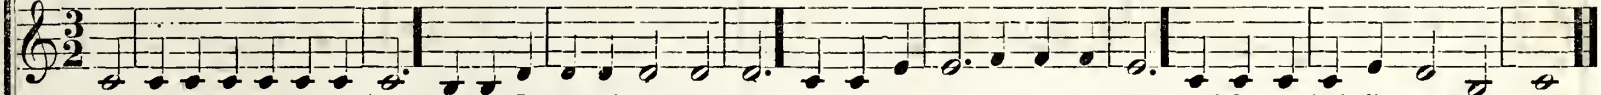


HYDE PARK. L. M.

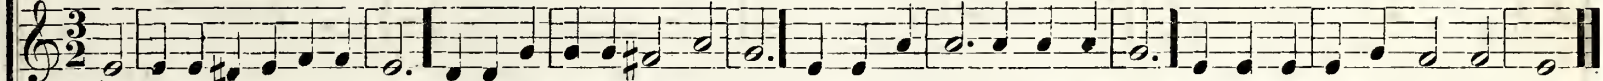
C. M. Wyman.



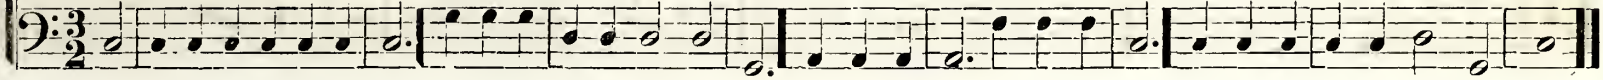
1. God is the refuge of his saints, When storms of sharp distress invade; Ere we can offer our complaints, Be-hold him present with his aid.



2. Let mountains from their seats be hurled Down to the deep, and buried there; Convulsions shake the solid world; Our faith shall never yield to fear.

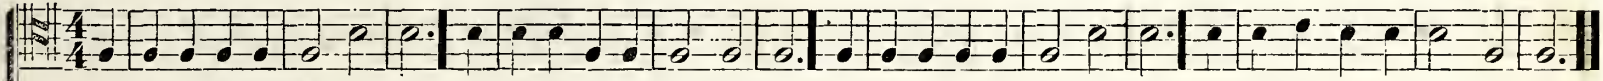


3. Loud may the troubled ocean roar; In sacred peace our souls abide; While every nation, every shore, Trembles and dreads the swelling tide.

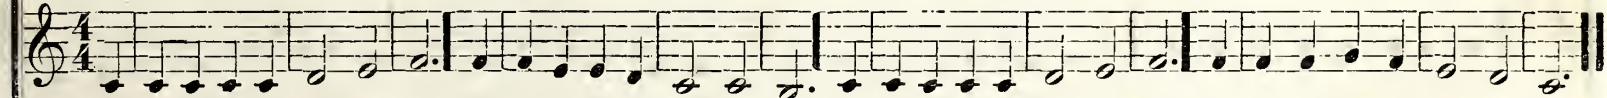


WARREN'S CHANT. L. M.

P. P. Bliss.



1. When we, our wearied limbs to rest, Sat down by proud Euphrates' stream, We wept, with doleful tho'ts oppress'd, And Zion was our mournful theme.



2. Our harps, that, when with joy we sung, Were wont their tuneful parts to bear; With silent strings neglected hung On willow trees that withered there.

3. O Sa-lem! our once happy seat, When I of thee for-get-ful prove, Let then my trembling hand forget The tuneful strings with art to move.

LAUREL. L. M.

With Spirit.

1. Come, let us sing the song of songs—The saints in heav'n began the strain—The homage which to Christ belongs: "Worthy the Lamb, for he was slain!"

2. To him, enthroned by filial right, All pow'r in heav'n and earth proclaim, Hon - or and ma - jesty, and might: "Worthy the Lamb, for he was slain!"

3. Long as we live, and when we die, And while in heav'n with him we reign; This song our song of songs shall be "Worthy the Lamb, for he was slain!"

GREENSBORO. L. M.

W. S. B. Mathews.

1. Why will ye waste on trifling cares That life which God's compassion spares? While, in the various range of thought, The one thing needful is forgot.

2. Shall God invite you from above? Shall Jesus urge his dying love? Shall troubled conscience give you pain? And all these pleas unite in vain?

3. Almighty God! thy grace impart; Fix deep conviction on each heart; Nor let us waste on trifling cares That life which thy compassion spares.

REVEL. L. M.

C. M. Wyman.

With spirit.

1. How sweetly flow'd the gospel sound From lips of gentleness and grace, When list'ning thousands gather'd round, And joy and rev'rence fill'd the place.

How sweetly flow'd
From heav'n he came,

2. From heav'n he came, of heav'n he spoke, To heav'n he led his followers' way; Dark clouds of gloomy night he broke; Un-vail-ing an im-mor-tal day.

ATLANTA. L. M.

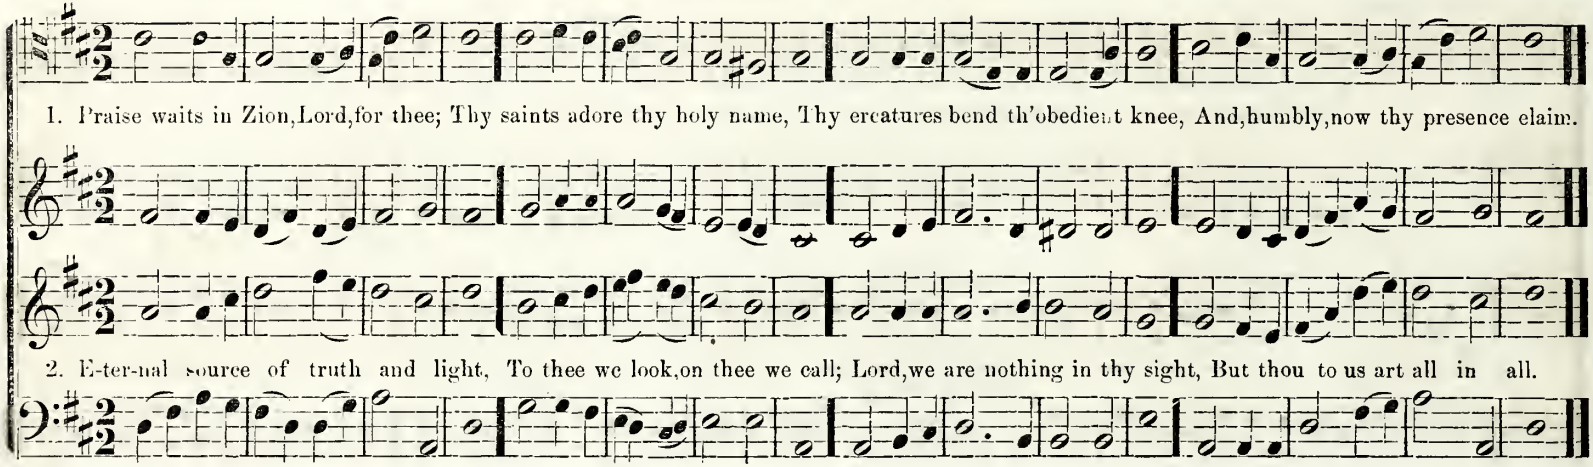
J. H. Tenney.

1. I hear a voice that comes from far, From Calvary it sounds abroad, It soothes my soul and calms my fear, It speaks of pardon bought with blood

2. And is it true that man-y fly The sound that bids my soul rejoice; And rather choose in sin to die, Than turn an ear to mer-cy's voice.

FIELD. L. M.

T. Martin Towne.

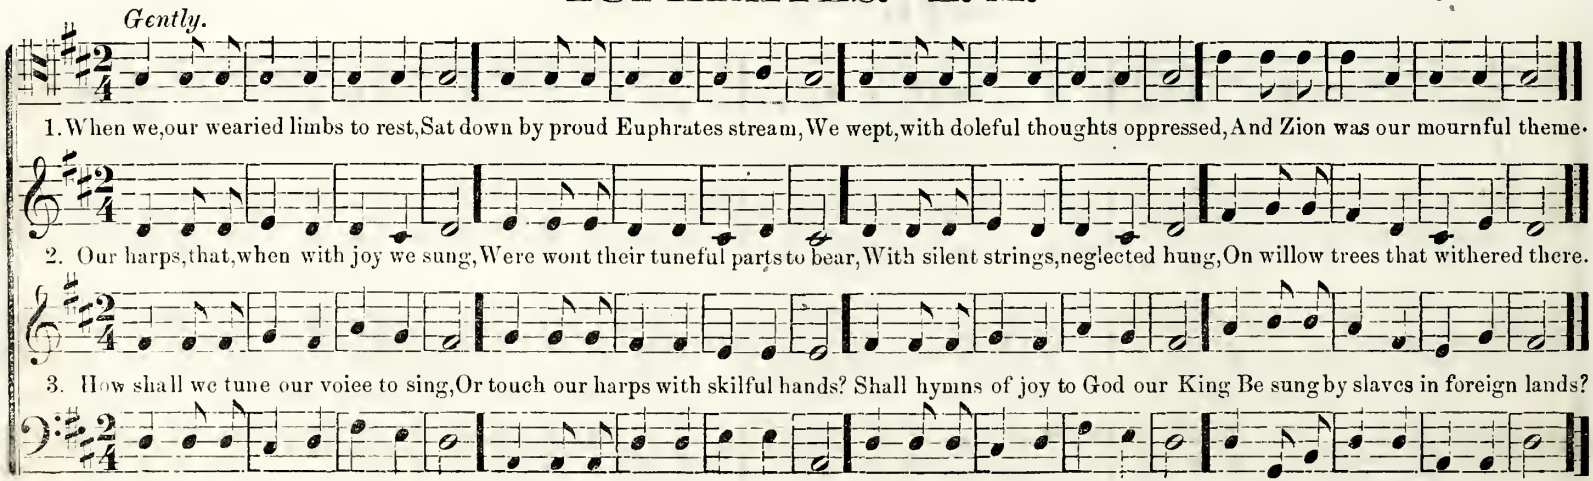


1. Praise waits in Zion, Lord, for thee; Thy saints adore thy holy name, Thy creatures bend th'obedient knee, And, humbly, now thy presence claim.

2. E-ter-nal source of truth and light, To thee we look, on thee we call; Lord, we are nothing in thy sight, But thou to us art all in all.

EUPHRATES. L. M.

E. Clark.



1. When we, our wearied limbs to rest, Sat down by proud Euphrates stream, We wept, with doleful thoughts oppressed, And Zion was our mournful theme.

2. Our harps, that, when with joy we sung, Were wont their tuneful parts to bear, With silent strings, neglected hung, On willow trees that withered there.

3. How shall we tune our voice to sing, Or touch our harps with skilful hands? Shall hymns of joy to God our King Be sung by slaves in foreign lands?

FAITH. L. M. No. 1.

Slow, with expression.

1. Be-fore thy throne with tearful eyes, My gracious Lord, I humbly fall; To thee my wea-ry spir - it flies, For thy forgiving love I call.

RAPHAEL. L. M.

Geo. M. Clark.

Maestoso.

1. O sweetly breathe the lyres above, When angels touch the quivering string, And wake, to chant Immanuel's love, Such strains as angel-lips can sing.

2. And sweet, on earth, the choral swell, From mortal tongues, of gladsome lays; When pardoned souls their raptures tell, And, grateful, hymn Immanuel's praise.

SUBMISSION. L. M.

2. While anxious friends around me close, And healing prayers breathe every one, 'Tis sweet to sink in calm repose, And feel, O God, thy will be done.

Maestoso.

1. Ride on, ride on in maj-es-ty! In lowly pomp ride on to die: O Christ! thy triumphs now begin O'er captive death and conquered sin.

3. Ride on, ride on in maj-es-ty! Thy last and fiere-est strife is nigh: The Father, on his sapphire throne, Expects his own a-noint-ed Son.

2. Ride on, ride on in maj-es-ty! The winged squadrons of the sky, Look down with sad and wondering eyes, To see th' approaching sacrifice.

4. Ride on, ride on in maj-es-ty! In lowly pomp ride on to die: Bow thy meek head to mortal pain; Then take, O God, thy power, and reign.

ALVARADO. L. M.

L. O. Emerson.

With Animation.

1. High in the heav'ns Eternal God ! Thy goodness in full glory shines; Thy truth shall break thro' every cloud That vails and darkens thy designs.

2. For-ev-er firm thy justice stands, As mountains their foundations keep; Wise are the wonders of thy hands, Thy judgments are a mighty deep.

3 Life.like a fountain rich and free,Springs from the presence of my Lord; And in thy light our souls shall see The glories promised in thy word.

ADNA. L. M.

M. L. Lawrence.

1. Be thou exalted, O my God ! Above the heavens where angels dwell; Thy power on earth be known abroad, And land to land thy wonders tell.

2. My heart is fixed; my song shall raise Immortal honors to thy name; Awake,my tongue,to sound his praise;My tongue, the glory of my frame.

3. High o'er the earth his merey reigns,And reaches to the utmost sky; His truth to endless years remains, When lower worlds dissolve and die.

MYRON. L. M.

C. M. Wyman.

With Earnestness.

1. O for a sweet, inspiring ray, To animate our feeble strains, From the bright realms of endless day, The blissful realms where Jesus reigns.

2. Immortal glories crown his head, While tuneful hallelujahs rise, And love, and joy, and triumph spread Through all th'assemblies of the sk es.

3. He smiles, and seraphs tune their songs To boundless rapture, while they gaze; Ten thousand thousand joyful tongues Resound his everlasting praise.

EXHORTATION. L. M.

Theo. T. Crane.

Steady Choral Style.

1. Zion, awake! thy strength renew! Put on thy robes of beauteous hue; Church of our God! arise and shine! Bright with the beams of truth divine.

1. Hail to the Prince of life and peace, Who holds the keys of death and hell! The spacious world unseen is his, And sov'reign pow'r becomes him well.

2. In shame and anguish once he died; But now he lives forevermore: Bow down, ye saints, around his seat, And, all ye angel bands, a - dore.

3. Forever reign, victorious King! Wide thro' the earth thy name be known; And call my longing soul to sing Sublimer anthems near thy throne.

RUSSELL. L. M.

L. B. STARKWEATHER.

With Reverence.

1. Sweet is the work, my God, my King, To praise thy name, give thanks, and sing; To show thy love by morning light, And talk of all thy truth at night.

2. Sweet is the day of sa-cred rest; No mor-tal care shall sieze my breast; O, may my heart in tune be found, Like Da-vid's harp of solemn sound.

3. My heart shall triumph in my Lord, And bless his works, and bless his word; Thy works of grace, how bright they shine! How deep thy counsels, how divine.

1. Go worship at Immanuel's feet; See in his face what wonders meet; Earth is too narrow to express, His worth, his glory, or his grace.

2. Nor earth, nor seas, nor sun nor stars, Nor heaven his full resemblance bears: His beauties we can never trace, Till we behold him, face to face.

3. Oh, let me climb those higher skies, Where storms and darkness never rise: There he displays his power abroad, And shines and reigns, th'incarnate God.

MORRISON. L. M.

J. H. Tenney.

Grazioso.

1. Sweet harp of Judah, shall thy sound, No more be heard on earthly ground, No mortal raise the lay again, That rung thro' Judah's mortal reign?

2. No! for to higher worlds belong The wonders of thy sacred song; Thy prophet bards might sweep thy chords, Thy glorious burthen was the Lord's.

3. Tho' faintly swell thy notes sublime, Far distant down the stream of time, Yet, to our ears the sounds are giv'n, And e'en thy echo tells of heav'n.

KILBURN. L. M.

Allegro Moderato.

1. My God, my King, thy various praise Shall fill the remnant of my days; Thy grace employ my humble tongue, Till death and glory raise the song.

2. The wings of every hour shall bear Some thankful tribute to thine ear; And every setting sun shall see New works of du - ty done for thee.

3. But who can speak thy wondrous deeds? Thy greatness all our thoughts exceeds; Vast and unsearchable thy ways; Vast and immortal be thy praise.

VINELAND. L. M.

The world cre-a - ted, &c.

3. For-ev-er shall his throne endure; His promise stands forever sure; And ev-er-last - ing ho - li-ness Becomes the dwellings of his grace.

LAMENTATION. L. M.

Jonas Parker.

Doloroso.

1. Behold the path which mortals tread, Down to the regions of the dead, Nor will the fleeting moments stay; Nor can we measure back our way.

2. Our kindred and our friends are gone, Know, O, my soul, this doom thine own, Feeble as their's my mortal frame, The same my way, my house the same.

3. Awake my soul, thy way prepare, And lose in this each mortal care, With steady feet that path be trod, Which through the grave conducts to God.

BELFAST. L. M.

C. M. Wyman.

Soprano Obligato.

1. Gent-ly, my Savior, let me down, To slumber in the arms of death; I rest my soul on thee alone, Ev'n till my last, expir-ing breath.

2. Soon will the storm of life be o'er, And I shall en-ter endless rest; There I shall live to sin no more, And bless thy name, for-ev-er blest.

3. There shall my raptured spirit raise Still louder notes than angels sing,—High glories to Immanuel's grace, My God, my Sav-ior, and my King!

ATWOOD. L. M.

C. M. Wyman.

Moderato.

1. All praise to thee, e-ternal Lord! Clothed in a garb of flesh and blood; Choosing a manger for thy throne, While worlds on worlds are thine alone.

2. Thou comest in the darksome night To make us children of the light,—To make us, in the realms divine, Like thine own angels round thee shine.

3. All this for us thy love hath done, By this to thee our love is won; For this we tune our cheerful lays, And shout our thanks in ceaseless praise.

NEW DAY. L. M.

Geo. F. Root.

Cantabile.

1. In sleep's se-rene ob - liv - ion laid, I safe-ly passed the silent night; Again I see the breaking shade, I drink again the morn-ing light.

2. New born, I bless the waking hour, Once more, with awe, rejoice to be; My conscious soul resumes her power, And springs, my guardian God, to thee.

3. O guide me thro' the various maze, My doubtful feet may this day tread; And spread thy shield's protecting blaze, When dangers press around my head.

OBRIAN. L. M.

Theo. T. Crane. 1845.

Chanting Style.

1. Had I the tongues of Greeks and Jews, And nobler speech than angels use, If love be absent, I am found, Like tinkling brass, an empty sound.

2. If love to God and love to men Be absent, all my hopes are vain; Nor tongues, nor gifts, nor fiery zeal, The work of love can e'er ful - fil.

PETITION. L. M.

1. Father, adored in worlds above, Thy glorious name be hallowed still; Thy kingdom come in truth and love, And earth, like heaven, obey thy will.

2. Lord, make our daily wants thy care, Forgive the sins that we forsake; O, let us in thy kindness share, As fellow-men of ours par-take.

1. Now to the Lord a no - ble song: A - wake, my soul! awake, my tongue! Hosanna to th' eternal name, And all his boundless love proclaim!

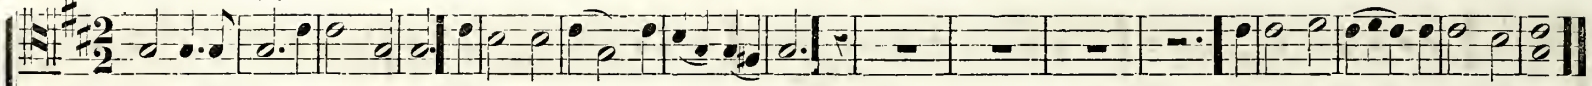
2. Grace!—'tis a sweet, a charming theme; My tho'ts rejoice at Jesus' name: Ye angels, dwell upon the sound, Ye heav'ns, reflect it to the ground.

3. O, may I live to reach the place Where he un-vails his love-ly face! Where I his beauties shall be-hold, And sing his name to harps of gold.

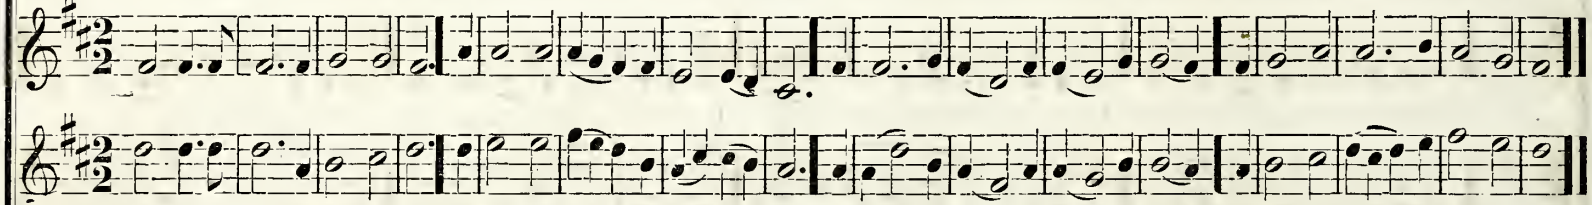
BOUNDLESS LOVE. L. M.

L. O. Emerson.

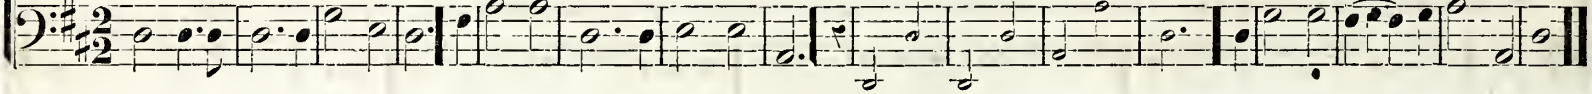
With Boldness.



1 Now to the Lord a no-ble song! A-wake, my soul! a-wake, my tongue! Ho-san-na to th'e-ter-nal name, And all his bound-less love pro-claim.

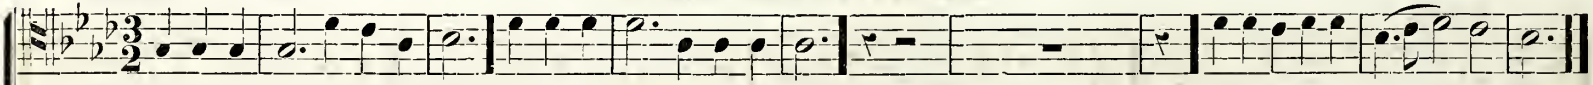


2. See where it shines in Je-sus' face, The bright-est im-age of his grace; God, in the per-son of his Son, Has all his might-iest works out-done.

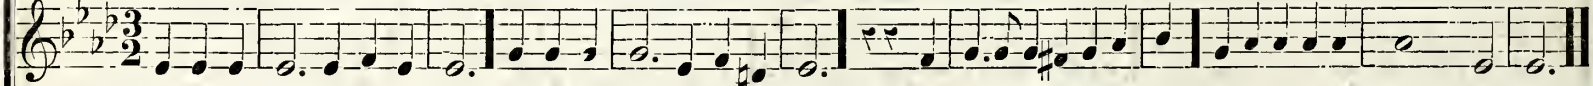


ARCOLA. L. M.

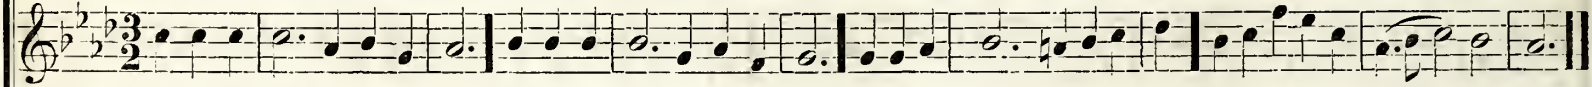
S. Wesley Martin.



1. Stand up, my soul! shake off thy fears, And gird the gospel armor on; March to the gates of endless joy, Where Jesus, thy great Captain's gone.



2. Then let my soul march boldly on, Press forward to the heavenly gate: There peace and joy eternal reign, And glittering robes for conquerors wait.



3. There shall I wear a star-ry crown, And tri-umph in al-might-y grace, While all the arm-ies of the sky Join in my glo-rious Lead-er's praise.

JAMES R. MURRAY.

Joyfully.

1. These are the crowns that we shall wear, When all thy saints are crowned; These are the palms that we shall bear On yon - der ho - ly ground.

2. These are the robes, unsoiled and white, Which we shall then put on, When, foremost 'mong the sons of light, We sit on yon-der throne.

3. Then wel - come toil, and care, and pain! And wel-come sor-row, too! All toil is rest, all grief is gain, With such a prize in view.

4. Come, crown and throne; come, robe and palm; Burst forth, glad stream of peace! Come, holy city of the Lamb! Rise, Sun of righteousness!

PALMER. C. M.

M. SLASON.

1. And can mine eyes, with-out a tear, A weep - ing Sa - vior see? Shall I not weep his groans to hear Who groaned and died for me?

2. Blest Je - sus! let those tears of thine Sub-due each stub-born foe; Come, fill my heart with love divine, And bid my sor-rows flow.

SALEM. C. M.

J. H. Tenney.

With animation.

1. Begin, my tongue, some heavenly theme, And speak some boundless thing; The mighty works or mighty name Of our e - ter - nal King.

2. His ver - y word of grace is strong, As that which built the skies; The voice that rolls the stars a - long Speaks all the prom - is - es.

3. Oh, might I hear thy heavenly tongue But whisper, "Thou art mine!" Those gentle words should raise my song To notes almost di - vine.

AMANDA. C. M.

A. W. Keen.

With expression.

1. As pants the hart for cool-ing streams, When heated in the chase; So longs my soul, O God, for thee, And thy re-fresh-ing grace.

2. For thee, my God, the liv - ing God, My thirs - ty soul doth pine; O, when shall I be-hold thy face, Thou Ma - jes - ty di - vine.

3. Why restless, why cast down, my soul? Trust God, and he'll employ His aid for thee, and change these sighs To thankful hymns of joy.

AMBER. C. M.

H. E. Kimball.

1. Thou dear Redeemer, dy-ing Lamb, I love to hear of thee ; No mu - sic's like thy charming name, Nor half so sweet can be, Nor half so sweet can be.

2. My Je-sus shall be still my theme, While on this earth I stay ; I'll sing my Je - sus' lovely name, When all things else decay, When all things else decay.

3. When I appear in yonder cloud, With all his favored throng, Then will I sing more sweet, more loud, And Christ shall be my song, And Christ shall be my song.

BUCKSPORT. C. M.

C. M. Wyman.

Joyfully.

1. Joy to the world ! the Lord is come ! Let earth re - ceive her King ! Let every heart prepare him room, And heaven and na - ture sing.

2 Joy to the world ! the Sav-ior reigns ! Let men their tongues employ, While fields and floods, rocks, hills and plains, Repeat the sounding joy.

3. He rules the world with truth and grace, And makes the nations prove The glo - ries of his righteousness, And won - ders of his love.

Andante.

1. Behold the western evening light! It melts in evening gloom: So calm - ly Christians sink a - way, De-scend-ing to the tomb.

2. The winds breathe low, the withering leaf Scarce whispers from the tree: So gently flows the parting breath, When good men cease to be.

3. But soon the morning's happier light Its glo - ry shall re - store, And eye - lids that are sealed in death Shall wake to close no more.

TRENTON. C. M.

C. M. Wyman.

Theme f

1. Blest is the man whose softening heart Feels all an - oth-er's pain; To whom the sup-pli - ca - ting eye Was nev - er raised in vain.

2. To gen - tle of - fi - ces of love His feet are nev - er slow; He views, thro' mercy's melting eye, A broth - er in a foe.

Theme f

3. He hears the Savior's cheering word, "My peace to him I give;" And when he kneels before the throne, His trembling soul shall live.

SARONI. C. M.

C. M. Wyman.

Chanting Style.

1. To thee, O God, my prayer ascends, But not for gold - en stores; Nor cov - et I the brightest gems That shine on eastern shores.

2. The faith and hopes of things unseen My best af - fec - tions move—Thy light, thy favor, and thy smiles, Thine ev - er - lasting love.

3. These are the blessings I desire; Lord, be these blessings mine; And all the glories of the world I cheerful - ly re - sign.

ANSWER. C. M.

P. P. Bliss.

1. There is a lit - tle, lone - ly fold, Whose flock one Shepherd keeps, Thro' summer's heat and winter's cold, With eye that never sleeps.

2. By e - vil beast, or burning sky, Or damp of midnight air, Not one in all that flock shall die, Beneath that Shepherd's care.

3. O gen - tle Shepherd, still behold Thy helpless charge in me; And take a wand'rer to thy fold, That trembling turns to thee.

HAVENS. C. M.

1. O, could I find, from day to day, A nearness to my God! Then should my hours glide sweet away, While leaning on his word.

2. Blest Je-sus, come and rule my heart, And make me wholly thine, That I may nev - er more depart, Nor grieve thy love di - vine.

3. Thus, till my last, ex - pir - ing breath, Thy goodness I'll a - dore; And when my frame dissolves in death, My soul shall love thee more.

SOLACE. C. M.

Rev. WM. WINDSOR.

1. How sweet the name of Jesus sounds In a be-liev-er's ear; It soothes his sorrows, heals his wounds, And drives away his fear, And drives away his fear,

2. It makes the wound-ed spir-it whole, And calms the troubled breast; 'Tis man-na to the hungry soul, And to the weary, rest, And to the weary, rest.

3. Jesus, my Shepherd, Guardian, Friend—My Prophet, Priest and King; My Lord, my Life, my Way, my End, Accept the praise I bring, Accept the praise I bring.

1. The Lord of glo - ry is my light, And my sal - va-tion, too; God is my strength, nor will I fear What all my foes can do.

2. When troubles rise, and storms appear, There may his children hide; God has a strong pa - vil - ion, where He makes my soul a - bide.

3. Now shall my head be lift - ed high A - bove my foes a-round; And songs of joy and vic - to - ry Within thy tem - ple sound.

ROCKPORT. C. M.

Rev. P. B. Fisk.

Maestoso.

1. Thy word like sil-ver seven times tried, Through ages shall endure; The men that in Thy truth con-fide, Shall find thy promise sure.

ritard.

2. Thy word the rag-ing winds con-trol, And rule the boisterous deep: Thou mak'st the sleeping billows roll, The roll-ing bil-lows sleep.

MALONE. C. M.

1. See the kind Shepherd, Jesus stands, And calls his sheep by name; Gathers the fee-ble in his arms, And feeds each tender lamb.
2. He leads them to the gen-tle stream, Where living wa-ter flows; And guides them to the ver-dant fields, Where sweetest herbage grows.
3. When, wandering from the peaceful fold, We leave the narrow way, Our faithful Shepherd still is near, To seek us when we stray.
4. The weakest lamb a-mong the flock Shall be its Shepherd's care; While folded in our Sa-vior's arms, We're safe from every snare.

PAVILION. C. M.

C. M. Wyman.
From "Harp of Judah."

SOLO. Soprano or Baritone.

1. The Lord of glory is my light, And my sal-va-tion too; God is my strength, nor will I fear What all my foes can do.
2. Now shall my head be lift-ed high, A-bove my foes around; And songs of joy and vic-to-ry With-in thy tem-ple sound.

Rit.

1. The Lord of glo-ry is my light, And my sal-va-tion too; God is my strength, nor will I fear What all my foes can do.
2. Now shall my head be lift-ed high, Above my foes a-round; And songs of joy and vic-to-ry With-in thy tem-ple sound.

Rit.

Use small notes for first stanza.

SINCLAIR. C. M. Peculiar.

1. O Thou, who art enrobed with light, How pure the soul must be, When, placed within thy searching sight, It shrinks not, but with calm delight Can live and look on thee.

2. Is there a way for man to rise To that sublime abode? Thine offering and thy sacrifice, Thy pains, and groans, and tears, and cries; Thy death, O Lamb of God;—

3. These, these pre-pare us for the sight Of Majes - ty a-bove; The sons of ignorance and night Can dwell in the eternal Light, Through the eternal Love.

ARDOR. C. M.

J. H. TENNEY.

1. Lift up to God the voice of praise; Whose breath our souls inspired; Loud and more loud the anthems raise, With grateful ardor fired, With grateful ardor fired.

2. Lift up to God the voice of praise, Whose goodness, passing thought, Loads every moment, as it flies, With benefits unsought, With benefits un-sought.

3. Lift up to God the voice of praise, For hope's transporting ray, Which lights the darkest shades of death, To realms of endless day, To realms of endless day.

MARENGO. C. M.

Dr. C. C. Miller.

1. O for a elos - er walk with God, A calm and heavenly frame; A light to shine upon the road That leads me to the Lamb.

2. Return, O ho - ly Dove! return, Sweet messen-ger of rest! I hate the sins that made thee mourn, And drove thee from my breast.

3. The dearest i - dol I have known, Whate'er that i - dol be; Help me to tear it from thy throne, And worship on - ly thee.

SPRINGFIELD. C. M.

James R. Murray.

1. O God, our help in a - ges past, Our hope for years to come, Our shelter from the storm - y blast, And our e - ternal home.

2. Before the hills in or - der stood, Or earth received her frame, From ever - last - ing thou art God, To endless years the same.

3. A thousand a - ges in thy sight Are like an even - ing gone—Short as the watch that ends the night Before the rising sun.

SEMINARY HILL. C. M. No. 1.

REST. C. M.

C. C. Stearns.

p Espressivo.

1. When the worn spir - it wants repose, And sighs her God to seek, How sweet to hail the evening's close, That ends the weary week.

2. Sweet day! thine hours too soon will cease, Yet while they gently roll; Breathe, Heav'nly Spir-it, source of peace, A Sabbath o'er my soul.

p

3. When will my pil-grim-age be done, The world's long week be o'er, That Sab - bath dawn which needs no sun, That day which fades no more.

CHATHAM. C. M.

G. B. Loomis.

1. Thou dear Re-deem-er, dy - ing Lamb, I love to hear of thee; No mu - sic's like thy charming name, Nor half so sweet can be.

2. Oh, may I ev - er hear thy voice In mercy to me speak; In thee, my Priest, will I rejoice, And thy salvation seek.

3. When I appear in yond - er cloud, With all his fav - ored throng, Then will I sing more sweet, more loud, And Christ shall be my song.

ELLIS. S. M.

C. M. Wyman.

Moderato.

1. "My times are in thy hand;" My God! I wish them there; My life, my friends, my soul I leave En-tire-ly to thy eare.

2. "My times are in thy hand;" Why should I doubt or fear? My Father's hand will nev-er cause His child a needless tear.

3. "My times are in thy hand;" I'll al-ways trust in thee; And, af-ter death, at thy right hand I shall for-ev-er be.

CARTER. S. M.

Geo. H. Graves.

Maestoso.

1. O Lord our God! a-rise; The cause of truth maintain; And wide o'er all the peopled world Extend her bless-ed reign.

2. Thou Prince of life! a-rise, Nor let thy glo-ry cease; Far spread the conquests of thy grace, And bless the earth with peace.

3. O all ye na-tions! rise,—To God the Sav-ior sing; From shore to shore, from earth to heaven, Let echoing anthems ring!

Isaiah xlix · 12. "And these from the land of Sinim."

Words by Samuel Wolcott, D.D.

1 Lo! the land of Si-nim waking! Touched by rays of sacred light; Glim'rings from the Orient breaking O'er the darkness of her night;

2 With an-ces-tral wor-ship blending Round the tablet and the tomb, Whispers of the day impending Breathe their prophecy of doom

3. Lo! the faith which crossed the ocean, Westward with the Pilgrim Band, Throbbing with unquenched devotion, Westward crosses now the land,

4. Onward, still, thy glorious mission! Westward to the isles and main! Till the prophet's glowing vision Burst upon the sea and plain—

On the terraced hill-sides resting, Glancing over stream and lawn, Temple and pa - go - da cresting, Gleam the tokens of the dawn.

O - ver al - tars and o-bla-tions And the gilded gods of wood, O'er the in-cense and prostrations, And the pagan rites of Boodh.

Rocky ramparts swiftly sealing, Westward o'er the world's highway— Now, the other o - cean hailing, Fronts the gateway of Cathay.

Heaven and Earth their gladness voicing, Breaking forth with loud aclaim O'er the ransomed host rejoicing:—"These from land of Sinim came

JESUS OUR FRIEND.

Geo. F. Root.
Words and Music.

1. Sweet 't is to sing of thee, Je - sus, our friend; Of thy great love so free, Je - sus, our friend; Oh, for a heart to praise,

2. When thou wert here be - low, Je - sus, our friend; Thou didst our sor - rows know, Je - sus, our friend; Grant to each heart to feel,

Through all our earth - ly days, Thy won-drous works and ways, Je - sus, our friend.

3. Tender and patient thou,
Jesus, our friend;
To thy dear love we bow,
Jesus, our friend;
Oh, in thy spirit pure,
May we our ills endure,
Trusting thy promise sure,
Jesus, our friend.

4. By thy redeeming grace,
Jesus, our friend;
We hope to see thy face,
Jesus, our friend;
Then will we joyful praise,
Throughout eternal days,
Thy wondrous works and ways,
Jesus, our friend.

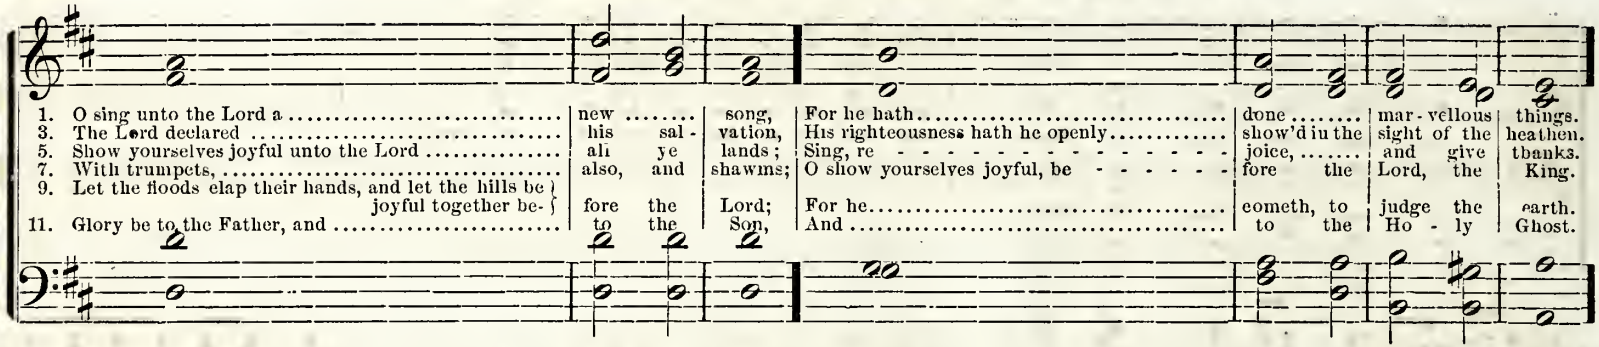
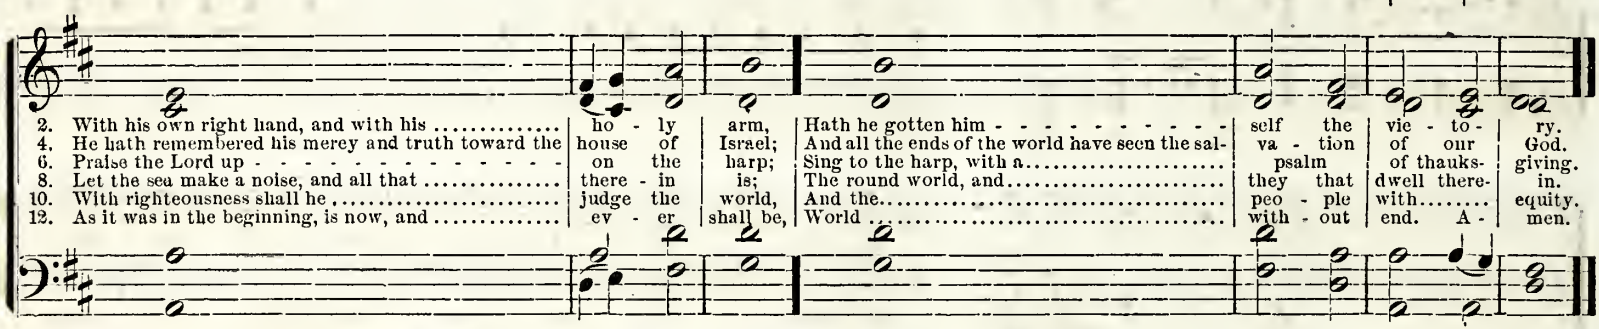
O SING UNTO THE LORD.

C. M. WYMAN.



1. O sing unto the Lord a ..... new ..... song, For he hath ..... done ..... mar - vellous things.
3. The Lord declared ..... his sal - vation, His righteousness hath he openly ..... show'd in the sight of the heathen.
5. Show yourselves joyful unto the Lord ..... all ye lands; Sing, re - - - - - - - - - - - - joice, ... and give thanks.
7. With trumpets, ... also, and shawms; O show yourselves joyful, be - - - - - - fore the Lord, the King.
9. Let the floods clap their hands, and let the hills be joyful together be- fore the Lord; For he ..... cometh, to judge the earth.
11. Glory be to the Father, and ..... to the Son, And ..... to the Ho - ly Ghost.



2. With his own right hand, and with his ..... ho - ly arm, Hath he gotten him - - - - - - - - - - self the vie - to - ry.
4. He hath remembered his merey and truth toward the house of Israel; And all the ends of the world have seen the sal- va - tion of our God.
6. Praise the Lord up - - - - - - - - - - - - - on the harp; Sing to the harp, with a ..... psalm of thanks- giving.
8. Let the sea make a noise, and all that ..... there - in is; The round world, and ..... they that dwell there- in.

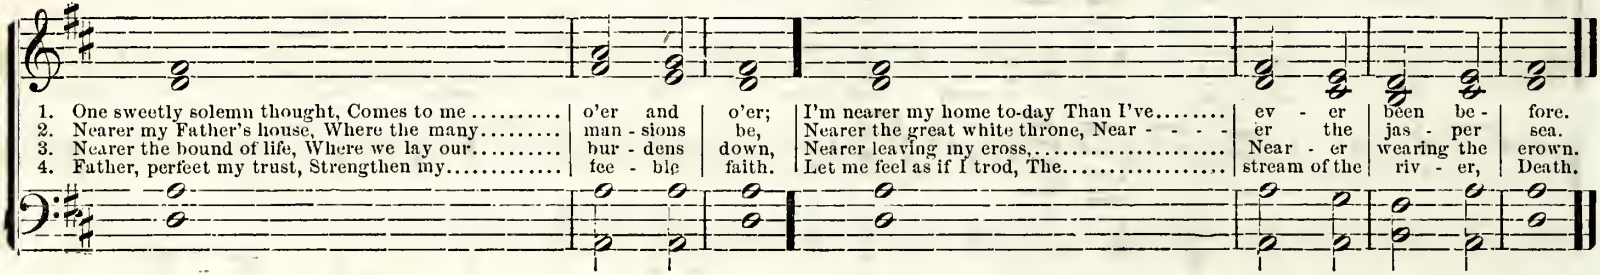
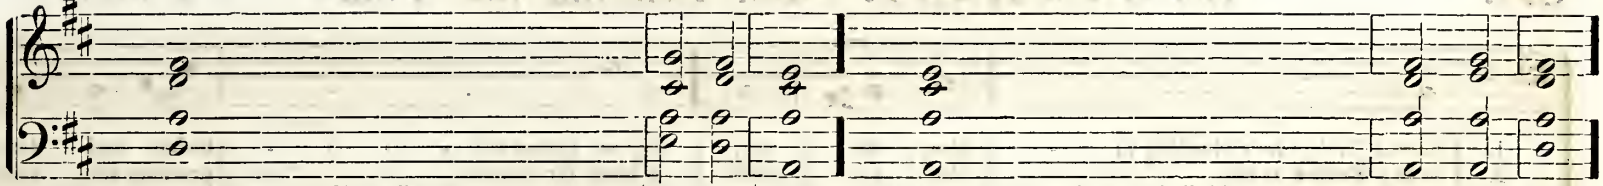
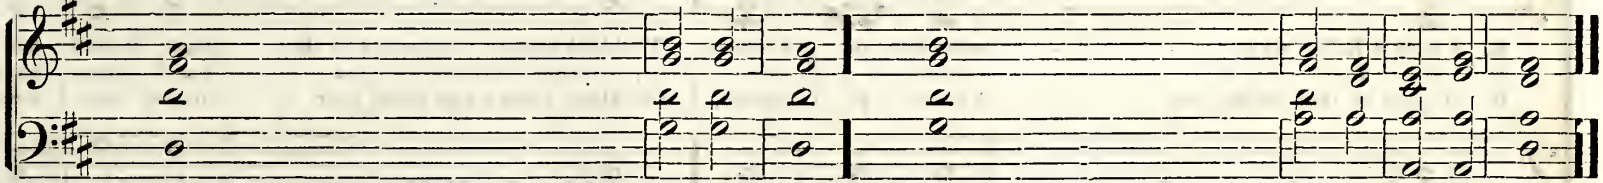
ONE SWEETLY SOLEMN THOUGHT.



1. One sweetly solemn thought, Comes to me ..... o'er and o'er; I'm nearer my home to-day Than I've ..... ev - er been be - fore.
2. Nearer my Father's house, Where the many ..... man - sions be, Nearer the great white throne, Near - - - - er the jas - per sea.
3. Nearer the bound of life, Where we lay our ..... bur - dens down, Nearer leaving my cross, ... Near - er wearing the crown.
4. Father, perfect my trust, Strengthen my ..... fee - ble faith. Let me feel as if I trod, The ..... stream of the riv - er, Death.



1. Oh, well it is forever, Oh, well for ev - er more ; My nest hung in no forest, Of all this death doomed shore
2. The King, there, in his beauty, Without a vail is seen ; It were a well-spent journey, Though seven deaths lay be - tween.
3. Oh, Christ, he is the fountain, The deep, sweet well of love, The streams on earth I've tasted, More deep I'll drink a - bove.
4. Soon shall the cup of glory, Wash down earth's bitterest woes ; Soon shall the desert's brier Break into E - den's rose.
5. I shall sleep sound in Jesus, Filled with his likeness rise, To live and to adore him, To see him with these eyes.



Yea, let the vain world vanish, As from the ship the strand, While glory—glory dwelleth In Im - manuel's land.
The Lamb, with his fair army, Doth on Mount Zi - on stand, And glory—glory dwelleth In Im - manuel's land.
There to an ocean fulness, His mercy doth ex- pand, And glory—glory dwelleth In Im - manuel's land.
The curse shall change to blessing, The name on earth that's banned Be graven on the white stone, In Im - manuel's . . . .
'Tween me and resurrection, But Para - - - dise doth stand, Then—then for glory dwelling In Im - manuel's land.

2. Blessed are the meek; for they shall in- herit the earth.
3. Blessed are the merciful; for they shall ob- tain —— mercy.
4. Blessed are the peacemakers; for they shall be called the children of God.

SOLO.

5. Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you, falsely, for my —— sake;

Blessed are they that mourn; for they shall be comfort- ed
Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness ... for they —— hall be filled.
Blessed are the pure in heart; for they shall see —— God.
Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake; for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

CHORUS.

Rejoice, and be exceeding glad; for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were be- for you. | A- - men

HYMN--CHANT. "I'm Praying for You."

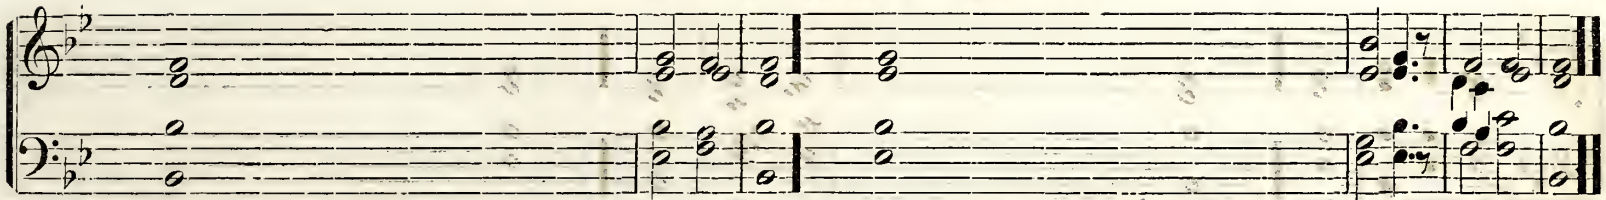
C. M. Wyman.

1. I have a Savior, he's pleading in - glory for me, For my graces are - - - - feeble and few.
2. I have a Father, to me - - - he has given A home for eternity, - - - precious and true;
3. I have a Crown, I shall - - - wear it — for- ever, Encircled with jewels of - - - heaven - ly hue;

4. I have a Robe, 'tis re- - - - splendent in whiteness; 'Tis blood-washed, 'tis bathed in the - blest Spirit's dew;
5. I have a Peace — it is - - - calm as a river, A peace that the friends of the - world never knew;
6. O speak of that Savior, that - - Father in Heaven, The Harp, Crown and Robe, ever - bright, ever new;

Yet ever he watches in tenderness - o'er me; And would that my Savior were your Savior too! For you I am praying,—I'm praying for you.
And soon will my spirit be with him in Heaven; But oh, that you'd let him be your Father too! For you I am praying.—I'm praying for you.
'Twas purchased by Jesus, my crucified Savior; Oh. will you not seek for a diadem - - too! For you I am praying,—I'm praying for you.

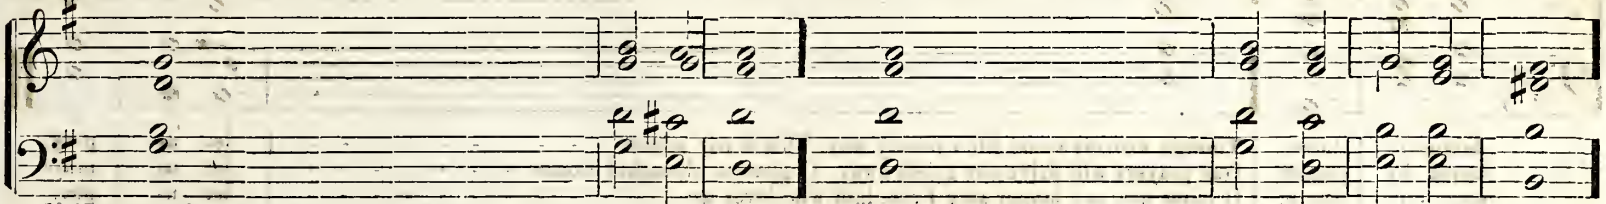
O when I receive it all glistering in - brightness, Will you have the raiment of righteousness too! For you I am praying,—I'm praying for you.
My Savior alone is its Author and - Giver; But oh that you'd ask and receive that peace too! For you I am praying,—I'm praying for you.
That peace you possess, and the rest that is given, Praying Christ to bring back other wanderers too! And prayer shall be answered, 'twas answered for you.



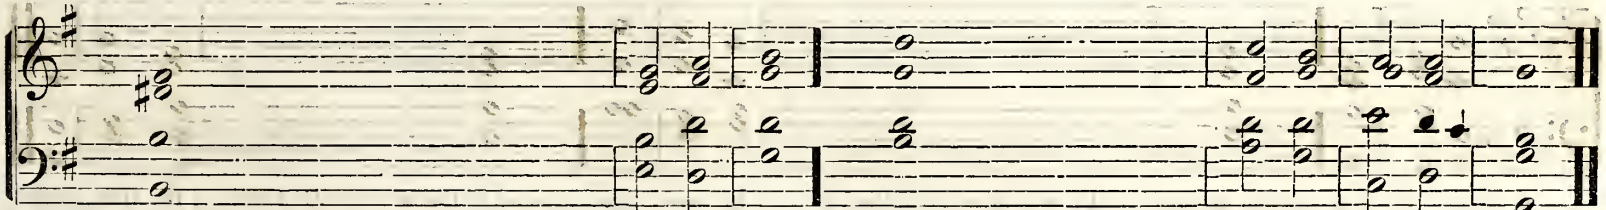
1. With tearful eyes I look around; Life seems a dark and storm - y sea; Yet,'mid the gloom,I hear a sound,A heavenly whisper, "Come to me."
2. It tells me of a place of rest, It tells me where my soul may flee; O,to the weary,faint,oppressed,How sweet the bidding, "Come to me."
3. When nature shudders,loth to part From all I love, en- joy and see; When a faint chill steals o'er my heart,A sweet voice utters, "Come to me."
4. "Come,for all else must fail and die; Earth is no resting- place for thee; To heaven direct thy weeping eye, I am thy portion; "Come to me."
5. O voice of mercy ! voice of love ! In conflict,grief and a - go - ny, Support me, cheer me from above, And gently whisper, "Come to me."

FOR THEE, O DEAR, DEAR COUNTRY.

C. M. WYMAN.



1. For thee, O dear, dear country, Mine eyes their vig-ils keep; For very love beholding Thy hap - py name they weep.
2. Jerusalem, the golden, With milk and - - honey blest; Beneath thy contemplation, Sink heart and voice op- pressed.
3. They stand, those halls of Zion, All jubil- - ant with song; And bright with many an angel,And all the mar-tyr throng.
4. There is the throne of David, And there from care re- leased; The song of them that triumph,The shout of them that feast.



And now we fight the battle, But then shall - wear the crown, Of full and everlasting, And pas - sion - less re- nown.
I know not, O, I know not, What social - - joys are there; What radiancy of glory,What light be - yond com- pare.
The prince is ever in them, The daylight - - is se - rene; The pastures of the Blessèd,Are decked in glo-rious sheen.
And they,who,with their leader,Have conquered - in the fight, Forever and forever, Are - clad in robes of white.

CHANT. Come Let Us Pray.

1. Come let us | pray: | 'Tis sweet to feel That God him - - - | self is | near; | That while we at his footstool kneel, His mercy - -
2. Come let us | pray: | The burning brow, The heart op - - - | pres'd with | care, | And all the woes that throng us now Will be re - -
3. Come let us | pray: | The mercy seat Invites the - - - - | fer - vent | prayer; | Our Heavenly Father waits to greet The contrite -

p

deigns to | hear; | Though sorrows cloud life's dreary way, This is our solace: - - - - - - - - - - | let us | pray.
lieved by | prayer; | Our prayers will drive our griefs away, O glorious thought! Come - - - - - - - | let us | pray.
spir - it | there; | O loiter not, nor longer stay From him who loves us: - - - - - - - - - - - - | let us | pray.

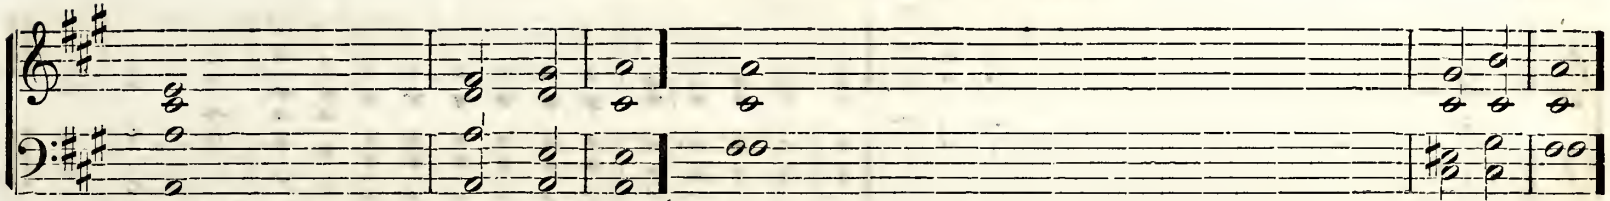
Heart, Be Still.

C. M. W.

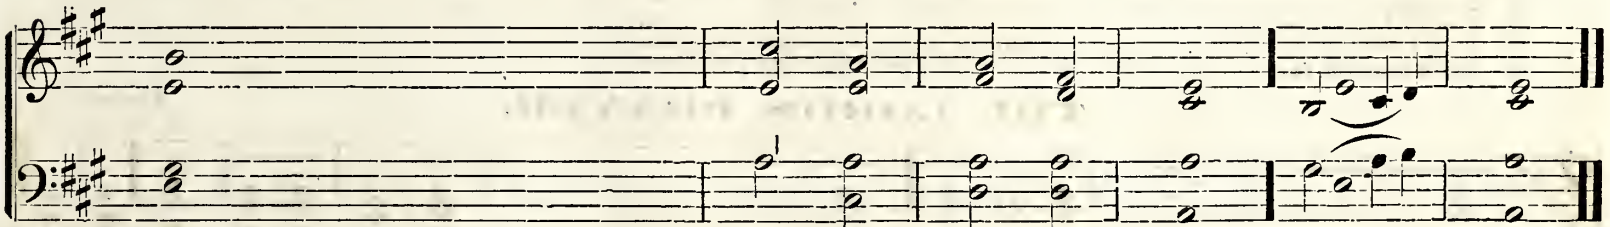
1. Heart, be | still; | In the darkness of thy woe, Bow thee silent - - | ly and | low; | Comes to the whate'er God will, | Be thou | still.
2. Be thou | still; | Vainly all thy words are spoken, Till the word of | God hath | broken; | Life's dark myst'ries—good or ill— | Be thou | still.
3. Sleep thou | still; | 'Tis thy Father's work of grace; Wait thou yet be- | fore his | face, | He'll thy sure deliverance will; | Keep thou | still.
4. Lord my | God, | By thy grace, O may I be All submission, - - | si - lent- | ly, | To the chastenings of thy rod; | Lord my | God.
5. Shep-herd | King, | From thy fullness, grant to me, Still, yet fearless | faith in | thee, | Till from night the day shall spring, | Shepherd | King.

Shadow of the Rock.

C. M. Wyman.



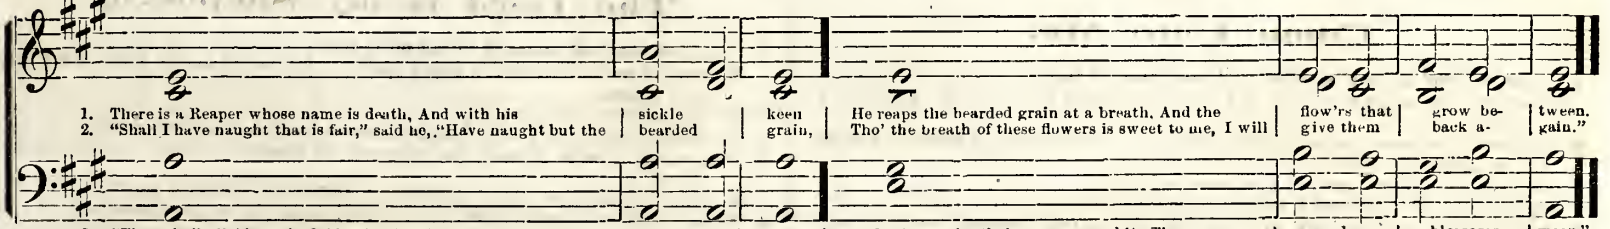
1. The Shadow of the Rock! Stay, | Pil - grim | stay! | Night treads upon the heels of day; There is no other resting- - - | place this | way.
2. The Shadow of the Rock Night | veils the | land; | How the palms whisper as they stand, How the well tinkles faintly | through the | sand;
3. The Shadow of the Rock To | wea - ry | feet | Tnat have been diligent and fleet, The sleep is deeper and the | shade more | sweet.
4. The Shadow of the Rock! | Pilgrim—sleep | sound, | In night's swift hours, with silent bound, The Rock will put thee over | leagues of | ground,
5. The Shadow of the Rock! One | day of | pain | Thou scarce wilt hope the Rock to gain, Yet there wilt sleep thy last sleep | on the | plain,



The Rock is near, The well is clear, Rest in the | Shad - ow | of the | Rock!
Cool water take, Thy thirst to slake— Rest in the | Shad - ow | of the | Rock!
O weary, rest, Thou art sore pressed— Rest in the | Shad - ow | of the | Rock!
Gaining more way By night than day— Rest in the | Shad - ow | of the | Rock!
And only wake in Heaven's daybreak— Rest in the | Shad - ow | of the | Rock! | A - men.

The Reaper and the Flowers.

C. M. Wyman.



1. There is a Reaper whose name is death, And with his | sickle | keen | He reaps the bearded grain at a breath, And the | flow'rs that | grow be- | tween.
2. "Shall I have naught that is fair," said he, "Have naught but the | bearded | grain, | Tho' the breath of these flowers is sweet to me, I will | give them | back a- | gain."
3. "They shall all bloom in fields of light, Transplanted | by my | care, | And saints upon their garments white These | sacred | blossoms | wear."
4. And the mother gave in tears and pain, The flowers she | most did | love. | She knew she should find them all again In the | fields of | light a- | bove.
5. O, not in cruelty, not in wrath, The Reaper | came that | day; | 'Twas an angel visited the green earth, And | took the | flow'rs a- | way.

JOY TO THE WORLD.

GEO. F. ROOT.

SOLO. CHORUS.

1. Joy to the world! the .....Lord is come; The might-y God, the Ev-er-last-ing Father and the Prince of Peace.
2. Let every heart pre-.....pare him room; The might-y God, &c.
3. Joy to the world! the.....Sav-ior reigns; The might y God, &c.
4. O praise Him floods, rocks.....hills and plains; The might-y God, &c.
5. Lift up to Him the.....voice of praise; The might-y God, &c.
6. Loud and more loud the.....an-thems raise; The might-y God, &c.
7. To us a child of.....hope is born; The might y God, &e.
8. The Wonderful, the.....Coun-sel-or; The might-y God, &c.

THE LORD'S PRAYER.

TALLIS.

1. Our Father which art in heaven hallowed | be thy | name; | Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done in | earth as it | is in | heaven.
2. Give us this day our | dai-ly | bread; | And forgive us our debts, as | we for | give our | debtors.
3. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver | us from | evil; | For thine is the kingdom and the | power, and the | glory for- | ever. A-MEN.

Come Unto Me.

1. Come unto me all ye that labor and are | heavy | laden.
   Come unto me all ye that labor and are heavy laden and | I will | give you | rest.
2. Take my yoke upon you and learn of me, for I am meek and | lowly in | heart.
   And ye shall find | rest un- | to your | souls.
3. For my yoke is easy, and my | burden—is | light.
   For my yoke is | easy—and my | burden—is | light.
4. And the spirit and the bride say come, and let him that | heareth—say | come.
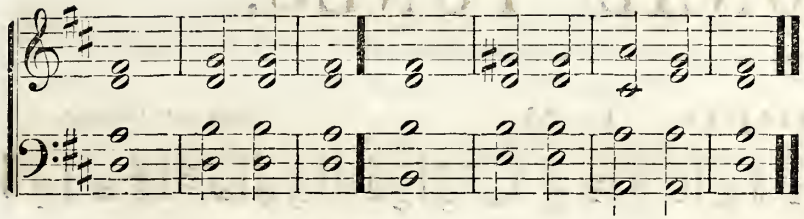
   And let him that is athirst come, and whosoever will, let him take the | water of | life— | freely. A-MEN

The Lord is my Shepherd.

1. The Lord is my shepherd, I | shall not | want.
   He maketh me to lie down in green pastures, he leadeth me be- | side the | still — | waters.
2. He re- | storeth—my | soul.
   He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness | for his | names— | sake.
3. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death I will | fear no | evil.
   For thou art with me, thy rod and thy | staff—they | comfort | me.
4. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence | of mine | enemies.
   Thou anointest my head with oil, my | cup— | runeth | over.
5. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the | days of—my | life.
   And I will dwell in the | house—of the | Lord—for | ever. A-MEN.



1. This life is but a rapid race,
   Its course, the cradle | to the | grave,
'Tween which our devious ways we trace,
   O'er mountain- | turret, | street, or | pave.

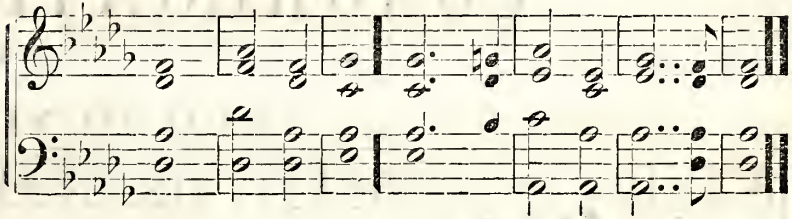
2. The cradle rests the infant feet,
   Just straying from their | mother's | arms,
The grave, a safe, a sure retreat,
   From all life's | rude and | fierce a- | larms.

3. Youth weaves her web of sun and dew
   With life a future, | misty | dream,
Love's sunlight glistening thro' and thro'
   Lights up the | path with | golden | beam.

4. The saddened days in later years [grief,
   When changed those notes to | wails of |
The bursting heart, the bitter tears,
   The broken | stalk, the | withered | leaf,

5. All these though hidden from our eye,
   We find along the | path we | tread,
The merry laugh, the deep-drawn sigh,
   The sorrowing | for the | lovely | dead.

6. So live that either sun or dew,
   Or cloud, or storm, which- | ever | come,
To thy own being thou'lt be true,
   In fairer | mansions | find a | home.



One by One.

—o—

1. One by one the sands are flowing,
   One by one the | moments | fall,
Some are coming, some are going,
   Do not | strive to | grasp them | all.

2. One by one thy duties wait thee,
   Let thy whole strength | go to | each,
Let no future dreams elate thee,
   Learn thou | first what | these can | teach.

3. One by one thy griefs shall meet thee,
   Do not fear an | arm-ed | band;
One will fade while others greet thee,
   Shadows | passing | through the | land.

4. Do not look at life's long sorrow,
   See how small each | moment's | pain,
God will help thee for to-morrow,
   Every | day be- | gin a- | gain.

5. Hours are golden links,—God's token,—
   Reaching heaven, but | one by | one,
Take them lest the chain be broken
   Ere thy | pilgrim- | age be | done.

1. O thou, the contrite sinner's friend,
   Who, loving, lov'st them | to the | end,
On this alone my hopes depend,
   That | thou wilt | plead for | me.

2. When, weary in the Christian race,
   Far-off appears my | resting | place,
And, fainting, I mistrust thy grace,
   Then, | Savior, | plead for | me.

3. When I have erred, and gone astray,
   Afar from thine and | wisdom's way,
And see no glimmering, guiding ray,
   Still, | Savior, | plead for | me.

4. When Satan, by my sins made bold,
   Strives from thy cross to | loose my | hold,
Then with thy pitying arms enfold,
   And | plead, O | plead for | me.

5. And when my dying hour draws near,
   Darkened with anguish, | guilt and | fear;
Then to my fainting sight appear,
   Plead- | ing in | Heaven for | me.

6. When the full light of heavenly day
   Reveals my sins in | dread ar- | ray,
Say thou hast washed them all away,
   O | say thou | plead'st for | me.
